“How do we live compassionately in a time of violence and despair? What can we do with our private disappointments and the anger we feel over an unjust world? In his most personal book yet, Richard Rohr turns to the writings of the Jewish prophets, showing how some of the lesser-read books of the Bible offer us a path forward today.” Review from Goodreads

Please be in touch with Jane (704-968-2902 or stpaulseducator@gmail.com) for additional information. We look forward to seeing you!

A Request from Jane – The Youth had so much fun making their Advent Wreath that Jane is planning to repeat next year. While you are decorating for Christmas, if you have any items (such as garland, flower picks, etc) that you are no longer using, please bring them to Jane.

Suggested Advent Devotional: “Let Every Heart Prepare: Meditations for Advent and Christmas” Barbara Cawthorne Crafton which is “Based on beautiful seasonal hymns, Crafton's daily meditations on faith, prayer, forgiveness, and healing for Advent and Christmas make an excellent companion for the season.” We also recommend an interview with the author about Advent accessible using this YouTube link

Notes from the Office

In an effort to eliminate scam texts, etc, from now on, the office will use only your email address that is currently on record. If you need to update your email information, there is a form on the Church Secretary's office door to notify the office of the change.

Please continue to be alert and cautious if you receive any suspicious emails or texts. Do not respond to them. If any doubt, please contact the Church Office. Remember, Father Ed will not ask for money or gift cards!
